

Introduction

Welcome! to the world of Up, Down, Across and Out. This series of word puzzles challenges your knowledge about the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community; while at the same time being entertaining and educational. Some clues are easy, some are difficult, and all are fun.

Queer Pop Culture Word Games contains 22 Crossword puzzles, 8 Quote Falls, and 7 Anagram puzzles for a total of 37 puzzles in all. These puzzles are focused more at lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender pop culture. For example, do you remember the Hanky Code? or can you name 10 films that featured lesbian themes? The puzzles that list famous actors, singers, and sports personalities are always a big hit with the younger, curious crowd. Bondage, S&M, sexual practices of insects, and masturbation are some of the topics also used to make fun puzzles. And, to be on top of pop culture, current TV shows that appeal to lesbians and gays have been used. Every puzzle has a different theme with no repetition of material.

Queer History and Politics Word Games is aimed to be fun and informational. Nineteen short essays, not exceeding 500 words, have been written with words to be searched or unscrambled through either a Word Find Puzzle, Anagram with Word Find Puzzle, or Word Search Puzzles. In addition, there are 10 Crossword Puzzles, 9 Quote Falls, and 1 Anagram Puzzle for a total of 39 puzzles in the book. Teachers are encouraged to use these word puzzles as supplemental activities during workshops on sexual orientation. These puzzles make a fun addition to any teaching program on lesbians, gays, bisexuals, and transgender people.

Queer History and Politics Word Games was initially conceived as a supplement to Sexually Stigmatized Communities— Reducing Heterosexism and Homophobia: An Awareness Training Manual published by SAGE Publications, Inc., 1999 by Chuck Stewart. However, the puzzles have broad appeal. The short essays succinctly summarizes various topics of lesbian and gay culture. The anagram and word search formats are less threatening and, thereby, facilitates learning without it being perceived as work. Queer History and Politics Word Games is a fun way to learn about the history and socio-political status of lesbian and gay culture.

Thanks and have fun!!

Famous Quotes By or About Gay Men

This collection of quotes demonstrates the range in gay male sensibilities. Name the person to whom these quotes are attributed. [Many of these can be found in National Museum & Archive of Lesbian and Gay History (1996). The Gay Almanac. New York: Berkley Books. Of course, you could cheat and look at the puzzle solution.]

Across

- 2 “Eventually I not only came to terms with being a gay man, but I came to recognize that I love being one, and want to be no other- That’s been, and continues to be, a miraculously wonderful coming of age.”
- 4 “I get so tired of these stories about, “Oh, the torture and torment of coming out.” There’s no torment in coming out. The torment is in being in.”
- 5 “They used to say my work was homosexual and therefore had no validity, which is like saying if a Negro prepares food, the food is dirty.”
- 6 “Homosexuality is a way of life that I’ve grown accustomed to. What’s the big deal about my sexuality?”
- 7 “To be overtly homosexual, in a culture that denigrates and hates homosexuals, is to be political.”
- 8 “The military ban has gone from a “No way” issue to an “Oh shit” issue in Congress.”
- 9 “Fun and wit are their own justification, but camp fun has other merits too- it’s a form of self-defense. Particularly in the past, the fact that gay men could so sharply and brightly make fun off themselves meant that the real awfulness of their situation could be kept at bay . . . Camp kept, and keeps, a lot of gay men going.”
- 10 “I am the love that dare not speak its name.” [lover of Oscar Wilde]
- 14 “When he died, I went to pieces. I retreated into a shell. For nine months, I wouldn’t speak to a living soul. I just clamed up. I wouldn’t answer the telephone and I wouldn’t leave the house.” [comments made by his lover upon the death of Frank Merlo]
- 15 “Would you ask me how I dare to compare the civil rights struggle with the struggle for lesbian and gay rights? I can compare them and I do compare them, because I know what it means to be called a “nigger” and I know what it means to be called a “faggot,” and I understand the difference in the marrow of my bones. And I can sum up that difference on one word: none.” [nomination for vice president of the U.S. in 1980]
- 16 “Your love was wonderful to me, passing the love of women.” [2 Samuel I:26]
- 17 Hollywood mogul Jack Warner at dinner one night asked the secretary and lover of Tennessee Williams “And what do you do, young man?” He said “I sleep with Mr. Williams.” Who was this young man?
- 19 “The threat of AIDS should be sufficient to permit a sex education curriculum. . . . There is no doubt that we need sex education in schools and that it include information on heterosexual and homosexual relationships. . . . The need is critical and the price of neglect is high.” [Surgeon General ____]
- 20 “There’s nothing great about sex- never was. What usually comes from it? Sweat, fatigue, and dirty linens . . .”

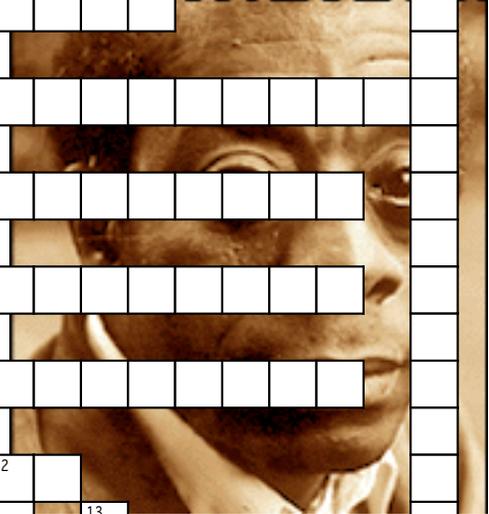

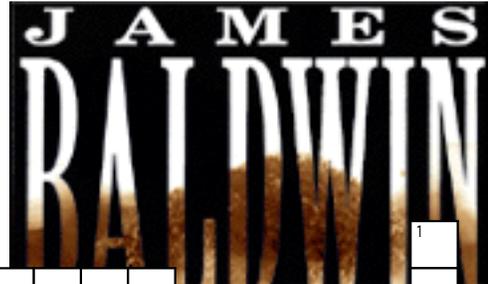

Down

- 1 “The Air Force pinned a medal on me for killing a man and discharged me for making love to one.”
- 3 “The hardest thing is just knowing that there’s so much more stuff to do” said 6 months before this artist died from AIDS.
- 5 “It is a great shock at the age of five or six to find that in a world of Gary Coopers you are the Indian.”
- 11 The last words this former Olympian said before he died from AIDS was “Well, this should be interesting.”
- 12 “Transsexual dressing is a gay contribution to the realization that we’re not a hundred percent masculine or feminine, but a mixture of hormones- and not being afraid of that natural self which the hormones dictate.”
- 13 “Hopefully, history will record that I was a hell of a nice guy and that the people who have criticized me are a bunch of fools and bimbos.”
- 18 “I learned that God doesn’t punish people. I’ve learned that God doesn’t dislike homosexuals, like a lot of Christians think. AIDS isn’t their fault, just like it isn’t my fault.”
